

Welcome to the 2019 National Leadership and Skills Conference!

CONTESTANT REMINDERS

- Don't forget to print your resume and bring it to your contest!
- Double check your orientation times.
- The "2019 SkillsUSA NLSC" App will be updated consistently. Check this frequently in case your contest time or location changes.
- Wear Contest Clothing to Contestant Orientation meeting.
- Turn your name badge to contestant number only. It is $10.00 to replace your name badge.
- Your hotel, bus route, and hotel contact information is on the back of your name badge.
- Please fill out your postcard to your sponsors correctly. There will be no fixing it if we deem that it is not acceptable. There will be a $50 penalty if the postcard is not up to SkillsUSA standards.

AWARDS CEREMONY

- Contestants, please remember to do the following if you're called at the Awards Ceremony on Friday night:
- All Contestants receiving medals at the awards ceremony must be dressed in official SkillsUSA attire or SkillsUSA Championships work clothing.
- This means that boots and sandals are unacceptable.
- You will be turned away from accepting your award if you are not in official dress!
- You need to hurry to stage area (there will be people to guide you to the stage)
- Look for your contest sign!
- We will be sitting in section (BLANK), the same seats we will be in for Opening Ceremony.
- Please join us at The Henry Clay immediately following the Awards Ceremony for a dinner and celebration of our competitors. Please be in official dress for this dinner.

ADVISOR REMINDERS

- It is important to hold meetings with assigned students.
- Establish expectations for your chapter members for this week.
- Code of conduct and rules established by chaperone and/or hotel rules must be followed at all times.
- Have a daily "Dress Code" check. Make sure your students are set up for success!
- Have nightly meetings to discuss the next day and to ensure curfew is being followed.

Advisors, it has come to our attention that each hotel room has alcohol in a locked box (much like a mini-bar). This is separate from the mini fridge. You will still have full access to the mini fridge in each room. The hotel cannot remove the alcohol from the rooms. If you wish, you are allowed to take the box from the student rooms to your room and replace it in each room before check out.
